There is great rejoicing in the Republican camp in this town. Money is flowing into the treasury of the Executive Committee, and 175 men are to be equipped with uniforms. It is proposed to make the balance of the campaign a lively one.

Watsessing Notes.

The Rev. Louis Burgess, a former pastor of the Watsessing M. E. Church, was in Watsessing on Monday.

The Baptists will hold a fair in Temperance Hall on the evening of October 5.

Miss Blanche Simpkins of Grace Street, who has been very seriously ill, is recovering.

Mr. Durkee of East Orange has rented Frank W. Lawrence's new house on Harlow Street.

There will be a mortgage-burning tomorrow night in the Watsessing M. E. Church.

The Doddtown Democrats raised a Cleveland and Stevenson banner on North Park Street last Thursday night. Joseph D. Gallagher of Bloomfield made an address. This is the first time a Democratic banner was ever raised in Doddtown, and is largely due to the indefatigable efforts of Edward T. Hart, who has infused new blood into the Democracy there.

The First Ward Republican Club of East Orange has erected a wigwam near Franklin Hose-house on Dodd Street. A large and handsome flag was raised there last night amid great enthusiasm. Alderman Joseph W. Ellor is the prime mover in the new organization.

Joseph W. Ellor, the Republican leader in the First Ward of East Orange, and Edward T. Hart, the Democratic leader, are near neighbors. Mr. Hart has recently entered the arena of politics, while Mr. Ellor is a veteran and has routed the Democrats in many battles. There are those who say that Mr. Ellor's victories have been due to the lack of a general on the part of his opponents. In Mr. Hart, it is asserted, a leader has been found who will checkmate Mr. Ellor and contest the ground with him inch by inch. Mr. Ellor's friends are glad to hear that the Democrats propose to fight for the control of the ward. They are confident that their leader, Mr. Ellor, will lead them to greater and more glorious victories, and when it comes to counting votes Mr. Hart and his friends will not be "in it."

Charles S. Murray & Son are very busy filling orders for coal to families. They have done a large family trade this year. —Advt.

Fairview Notes.

A very enjoyable social was held at the residence of Fred Mohrman on Tuesday night. Mirth and music reigned supreme.

The scenery in Fairview in these autumnal days is a source of delight to the poetic soul.

Other portions of this town may be blessed with churches, but in no section of the town is the Sabbath so quietly and respectfully observed as in Fairview.

Whether Harrison is elected or Cleveland is elected will make no difference to the residents of Fairview. Politics have been proscribed in Fairview. The sight of new houses affords more delight to Fairview people than gaudy campaign banners.

Major Damon, who formerly kept a hotel at Waverly, N. Y., will have charge of the new hotel in this place when completed. M. F. Estell will preside behind the bar.

William Kierstead of Brookdale had his brother Isaac arrested on Thursday on a charge of assault and battery. Isaac paid Justice Van Winkle the costs and was released.

Excelsior Lodge, Knights of Honor, received a fraternal visit from Progress Lodge of Franklin on Wednesday night.

The Bloomfield B. B. C. will play the Second Ward Athletic Club on the grounds near Oakes's mill at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon.

A colored individual by the name of Mann stopped in a Glenwood Avenue hostelry last Saturday morning to get a "cooler." During his absence his team of horses attached to a heavily laden lumber wagon ran away. They were stopped before much damage had been done.

RAILROAD STOCK and BONDS Bought and Sold

You are wearing clothes,
In the country,
We are making clothes,
In the city.
City styles are more stylish,
Than country fashions.
City prices are lower,
Than country prices.
The country is the place to live,
The city, to do business.
Competition convulses the city,
Comfort dwells in the country.
You can appear to advantage,
By dressing well.
We try to be singular,
By selling cheap.
Send for our catalogue,
And save railroad fare.
It is easy (and worth believing),
To take your own measure.
We have made clothing
For half a century.
We clothed your father; perhaps,
We can clothe you,
Without any perhaps about it.
All this is not rhyme,
But it is reason.
